Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-30, drawn to a first apparatus, classified in class 118, subclass 56+.
 - II. Claims 31-121, 122-150, drawn to a second apparatus, classified in class 118, subclass 620+.
 - III. Claims 151-181, 182-184, drawn to a method of treating a curable coating, classified in class 427, subclass 331+.
 - IV. Claims 185-215, drawn to a method of applying an energy curable coating, classified in class 427, subclass 487+.
 - V. Claims 216-233, drawn to a laminated (coated) product, classified in class 428, subclass 457+.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I and V; Inventions II and V are related as apparatus and product made. The inventions in this relationship are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the apparatus as claimed is not an obvious apparatus for making the product and the apparatus can be used for making a different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different apparatus (MPEP § 806.05(g)). In this case the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different apparatus, such as manual manipulation of the coating on a single substrate or an applicator of self-supporting curable films.

Inventions III and V; Inventions IV and V are related as process of making and product made. The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make other and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)).

In the instant case the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process, such as transfer lamination of self-supporting or preformed layers.

Inventions III and I; Inventions IV and I are related as process and apparatus for its practice. The inventions are distinct if it can be shown that either: (1) the process as claimed can be practiced by another materially different apparatus or by hand, or (2) the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process. (MPEP § 806.05(e)). In this case the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process such as manipulation of non-curable coatings.

Inventions III and II; Inventions IV and II are related as process and apparatus for its practice. The inventions are distinct if it can be shown that either: (1) the process as claimed can be practiced by another materially different apparatus or by hand, or (2) the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process. (MPEP § 806.05(e)). In this case the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process such as sterilization and/or cleaning operations.

Inventions I and II are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention I has separate utility such as a manipulator of non-curable coatings or a display device. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

Inventions III and IV are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention III has separate utility such as a method of manipulating a heat-curable or moisture-curable coating. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

2. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

3. Due to the number of claims and inventions involved, this restriction requirement is presented in written form.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).
